

PROGRAMME DESCRIPTION

The faculty of Allied Health Sciences, aims to provide a conducive environment for learning and research, for the students of this program, with due regard to the changing needs of the modern day.

Every so often, distinguished professors or research workers (local and/or International) of this relevant field are consulted to achieve high standards as well as to improve the quality of research.

PROGRAMME AIM

- ▶ To provide quality and innovative programme of study to cater to the present market needs and customer needs in accordance with the policies of national.
- ▶ To ensure that all Lincoln graduates are adequately prepared to be a part of the global workforce.

The aims and objectives of the University College were formulated after a complete review process.

The Senate and the Student council are consulted together along with the management and changes are suggested to achieve the desired goal. After a review of the suggestions, the final draft is presented to the Board of Director of the University College for approval.

PROGRAMME DURATION

Minimum Duration : 24 Months

Maximum Duration: 72 Months.

INTAKE AND ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

1. January. 2. May. 3. September.

- ▶ Master's Degree in any Health Sciences or equivalent or candidates registered for Master's level studies, may opt to convert their registration after a year to the Doctoral Level, subject to the approval by the postgraduate committee of the HEPs

Call us :

1 300 880 111 (Malaysia)
+603 78063478 (International)

Web : www.lincoln.edu.my | E-mail : info@lincoln.edu.my